As mentioned last edition, the Liederkranz is facing some very expensive building issues. The repair/replace estimates were potentially a financial threat to the organization.
• We did catch a break with one issue that could have been especially bad—a failed sewer line. It appears that the expert cleaning has been sufficient and the line remains intact.
• Other issues like the failing east wall with impacts to the Great Hall remain in the assessment stage.
• Replacement issues, like second story windows, while expensive, can be staged.
• We also believe that the boiler can be extended another year.

To put all of this in perspective, a major repair/replacement like to the boiler will cost up to TWICE what we collect in annual dues. You can readily understand why we encourage participation by all members and friends in all of our activities, most of which generate slightly more than costs.

As for this year’s Picnic, the debriefing meeting was poorly attended. Most amounts were up about 10% - nice, but disappointing given the size of the crowd. We hold these meetings to discuss issues like this! WE kick-off the 2020 event next January, but I will have sponsorship letters and guidelines shortly.

Finally, our Brotzeit Abend last year was a great success. We are planning to do it again on November 1st —check the newsletter for details.

Elisabeth von Trapp has been called "magical" and "a motivational musician." She's a member of one of the most famous musical families of the twentieth century -- the granddaughter of Captain and Maria von Trapp of The Sound of Music fame, but her talents are her own and reach far deeper than just her lineage. She will help us usher in the holidays, along with some help from Human Race regulars. This special, one-night-only holiday event happens on Saturday, December 14 at 8:00 pm at the Loft Theatre.

Premium seats begin at $55 for this performance. With those seats, there is also an option to add on a $20 per person meet-and-greet with Elisabeth. The A seats begin at $40 and the B seats at $30. Tickets available through www.ticketcenterstage.com

Rest in peace, dear Father Dave Brinkmoeller. We know you are greeting all your family and German Brinkmoeller relatives in heaven with a lusty "Grosser Gott" and "Ein Prosit"! Danke for being our Polka Mass celebrant in August, even when you were so sick. It was truly a blessing for all of us to have been there. Thank you, Amy, for letting us know. Our deepest sympathy to you and all Fr. Dave's family. And thank you, Adam Alonzo, for this beautiful photo of Fr. Dave at the Polka Mass in August.

WHO IS THIS GUY?

Did you see the great article about our very own Hans Rumpf and his work at the Air Force Museum in the Dayton Daily News? It also tells a lot about his life.
