We close out March with numerous activities—our new St Patrick’s Day Brunch and party followed by the Cabbage Roll dinner (March 23rd) and the March Picnic planning meeting on the 27th. Additionally, all of the usual activities continue: dance and choir rehearsals, German language class, game night, baking group and the Turner Hof Sunday and Monday lunches. Our March Genealogy Group meeting, March 23rd, will feature an innovative, intergenerational panel of presenters covering a wide range of ages and perspectives.

Comments were made at last night’s Sprechen Deutsch class that it was remarkable to see an organization like the Liederkranz so engaged with activities that it’s hard to find a meeting time and space, while other organizations wither. A central purpose of the Liederkranz has been, and remains, to foster the German tradition of community choral singing, auf Deutsch natürlich. Accordingly, I strongly encourage everyone to support the upcoming Cabbage Roll Dinner as it is a major fundraiser for our Choir. Danke.

On Saturday, March 23rd, we will be hosting an Inter-Generational Genealogy Forum from 1:30 - 3:00 p.m. with speakers from Millennials to the Greatest Generation.

The presentation will be led by Millennial Erin Weckesser. Panelists will include a Generation Xer: Garry Knight (the President of Montgomery County OGS); Baby Boomer: Judy Schneider (DLT leader); Silent Generation: Rosie Nolf (the President of Eintracht German Club); and a member of the Greatest Generation: Edgar Moorman (turning 100 in just a few months), assisted by his son Pat Moorman.

Erin Weckesser, the main speaker, lives in Colorado. She is a descendant of the Weckesser, Klump, and Clemens families which emigrated from Baden-Wuerttemberg and Bavaria to Dayton in the 1850s. These German families lived and thrived as respected members of the Montgomery County as public officials, entrepreneurs, church leaders, and leaders of their family. Erin has experience working through Dayton newspaper archives, cemetery, church, city and state records, as well as DNA data to conduct her genealogy research and loves to think outside the box when putting the lives of her ancestors together to retell their story. Erin is a member of the Montgomery County and Ohio Genealogical society where she has submitted numerous ancestors to the Settlers & Builders lineage society.

The Dayton Liederkranz-Turner Volkstaenzer (dancers) invite you to free dance lessons on Monday evenings from 7:30 – 9:00 pm Learn the Waltz, Polka, Ländler (Sound of Music) and many other dances. No prior dance experience necessary and you don’t need to bring a partner.
