The month of March is full of Liederkranz activities—from traditional events like our Fasching/Mardi Gras party and Cabbage Roll dinner to the newly expanded Turner Hof Sunday lunches and a new St Patrick’s Day Brunch and follow-on party. You will have to double down on your Lenten fasting to accommodate all of the potential food and drink!!

Our new Sprechen Deutsch class resumes on March 6th, dance and choir rehearsals continue, and our March Picnic planning meeting will be March 27th. It is inspiring to see how much the Liederkranz is doing for our members and to advance our German heritage mission. The increased level of activity has resulted in numerous new members—and that is a satisfying counter to the surprising number of members who ignored their 2019 Dues notices. Having a large and growing membership has always been a goal of mine—in a sense it affirms what we are doing. But maybe it’s better to have a smaller, but more engaged membership—that can be exciting. Your thoughts?? Please share.

On Saturday, March 23rd we will be hosting an Inter-Generational Genealogy Forum with speakers from Millennials to the Greatest Generation.

The presentation will be led by Millennial Erin Weckesser. Panelists will include a Generation Xer: Garry Knight (the President of Montgomery County OGS); Baby Boomer: Judy Schneider (DLT leader); Silent Generation: Rosie Nolf (the President of Eintracht German Club); and a member of the Greatest Generation: Edgar Moorman (turning 100 in just a few months), assisted by his son Pat Moorman.

Erin Weckesser, the main speaker, lives in Colorado. She is a descendant of the Weckesser, Klump, and Clemens families which emigrated from Baden-Wuerttemberg and Bavaria to Dayton in the 1850s. These German families lived and thrived as respected members of the Montgomery County as public officials, entrepreneurs, church leaders, and leaders of their family. Erin has experience working through Dayton newspaper archives, cemetery, church, city and state records, as well as DNA data to conduct her genealogy research and loves to think outside the box when putting the lives of her ancestors together to retell their story. Erin is a member of the Montgomery County and Ohio
Genealogical society where she has submitted numerous ancestors to the Settlers & Builders lineage society.

Help in the kitchen is needed for the upcoming brunch and cabbage roll dinner:
